03-Sept-1965 Carlos Irwin Estévez, known professionally as Charlie Sheen, is an American actor. His character roles in films have included Chris Taylor in the 1986 Vietnam War drama Platoon, and Bud Fox in 1987 film Wall Street. On television, Sheen is known for his roles on two sitcoms: as Charlie Crawford on Spin City, and as Charlie Harper on Two and a Half Men.

04-Sept-1981 Beyoncé Giselle Knowles is an American R&B and pop recording artist, actress and fashion model. Knowles rose to fame in the late 1990s as the lead singer of the R&B girl group Destiny's Child, one of the world's best-selling girl groups of all time.

05-Sept-1846 Jasper Newton "Jack" Daniel was an American distiller and the founder of Jack Daniel's Tennessee whiskey distillery. Jack Daniel's is a brand of Tennessee whiskey that is among the world's best-selling liquors & known for its square bottles & black label.

06-Sept-1900 William Andrew Cecil Bennett was the 25th Premier of the Canadian province of British Columbia. With just over 20 years in office, Bennett was and remains the longest-serving premier in British Columbia history. In 1976, W.A.C. Bennett was made an Officer of the Order of Canada.

07-Sept-1936 Charles Hardin Holley, known professionally as Buddy Holly, was an American singer-songwriter and a pioneer of rock and roll. Although his success lasted only a year and a half before his death in an airplane crash, Holly is described by critic Bruce Elder as "the single most influential creative force in early rock & roll."

08-Sept-1932 Patsy Cline, born Virginia Patterson Hensley, was an American country music singer. Since her death in 1963 at age 30 in a private airplane crash at the height of her career, she has been considered one of the most influential, and acclaimed female vocalists of the 20th century. Cline was best known for her rich tone and emotionally expressive bold voice.

09-Sept-1890 Harland David Sanders, better known as Colonel Sanders was an American entrepreneur who founded Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC). The Colonel's secret flavor recipe of 11 herbs and spices that creates the famous "finger lickin' good" chicken remains a trade secret. Portions of the secret spice mix are made at different locations in the United States, and the only complete, handwritten copy of the recipe is kept in a vault in corporate headquarters.
